

The Secret Weapon

By Carlo Furlan © 2006

CHORUS:

| E            | E            | A            | A            |
Let goodness disarm angry opposition
| E            | E            | A            | A            |
The secret weapon - grace
| E            | E            | A            | A            |
Unleash mercy, neutralize sorrow's poison
| Cmaj7      | D            | E5           | E5           |
Let the invasion begin

Last time:

| Am    | Bm    | C    | D    |
Launch restoration, send in compassion,
| Am - Bm - C - D - E B | E    |
Let the invasion begin

VERSE 1:

| C(#4)      | C(#4)      | Em        | Em        | (3x)
News enough to take a breath away, paralyzed with the story of the day
Entertained, desensitized, privileged and immunized
Avert our eyes, afraid to see, content in sincere sympathy
| C(#4)      | C(#4)      |
Or could I make a stand, defend a cause, intercede against the odds
| Am        | Bsus      | Bsus      |
What difference would it make?

VERSE 2:

| C(#4)      | C(#4)      | Em        | Em        | (3x)
Busy days in Pleasantville with flowers on the windowsill
Sheltered in the canopy – the flavorful reality
While rockets fling a deadly sting, resounding earth's catastrophes
| C(#4)      | C(#4)      |
Could I make a stand, defend a cause, intercede against the odds
| Am        | Bsus      | Bsus      |
What difference would it make?

BRIDGE: (from 3rd chorus)

| Em        | D            | C           | C           |
Righteousness must be more than keeping the law
| Em        | D            | C           | C           |
I confess I've stood still way too long
